

The two weeks communication session was very helpful for building confidence to speak in an interview. I've got idea of how to prepare for an interview and what kind of questions will I get. Practicing the questions and self-introduction, project explanation, salary negotiation was a nice experience and i could build my confidence in this area too. Also the trainers provide us valuable points and structure for these areas.